Respected Sir/Mam,

With great pleasure, we inform you that the Barclays LifeSkills Training Program conducted by Rubicon Skill Development for the students of your college has been a remarkable success. With the help of training and education, we want to mold individuals into holistic beings who are adept and increase employment opportunities in achieving their dream jobs.

The Barclays LifeSkills Training Program is a start to the development of your student's holistic being. We are happy to share the following initiatives that the students of your college can further be a part of.

1) Corporate and Student Engagement Sessions :

This program enables students to engage themselves with corporate volunteers, who then pertaining to the subject which is 'Career Sharing' or 'Interviewing Skills' share their career journey experiences and their very own inspirational stories with the students. Thus contributing to the development of students in making a positive impact in their first-flight career journeys.

2) Mentoring Students :

The purpose of this program is to enable colleagues to help students excel in their first-flight career journeys and become the best version of themselves. This interaction helps them achieve their goals, introducing them to new ways of thinking, challenging their limiting assumptions, and much more.

3) Resume Writing :

initiative is to guide students on how to represent themselves through their resumes. How to introduce themselves to employers, and present their qualifications and skillsets. The goal of writing a resume is to showcase their experience, education, and skills in a standardized format, thus securing an interview.

4) Mock Interviews -

The aim of this initiative is to reduce interview anxiety by familiarizing students with the situation. It will boost their confidence as well as it will allow them to preview any interviewing weaknesses they have. It also gives the students the opportunity to receive constructive feedback from their Colleagues.

5) Ideathon :

A forum where students will get an opportunity to contribute to a breakthrough of ideas and get new perspectives through different ideation tools and platforms. This initiative will contribute to enabling students to think out of the box and a forum where they would be guided and mentored by Senior Leadership in steering ideas and solutions.

All of the above initiatives are featured on our social media channels to help students build their network and connect with the communities at large. These platforms also help in portraying the vision of the college institutions. Above all, by the representation of your students, the college will have great visibility amongst leading Corporates like Infosys, Barclays, TCS, DXC Technologies, and many more.

Through these multiple ongoing initiatives, we aim to transform the lives of the students in your esteemed college. Understanding the importance of these trainings in students' career journeys, we hope that you continue this fruitful partnership to help more students achieve their dreams.
